

PRESS RELEASE AND MARKETING PLAN RUBRIC

Assignment description and directions:

This assignment will focus on how your nonprofit will position itself against other organizations and its communication plan with the public. The vast majority of this will be outlined in the marketing plan. I have provided you with a sample template that you should follow. In the template document, specific guideline instructions are laid out in red. You should delete the placeholder text as well as the red instruction text before submitting your marketing plan. Additionally, you will create a short, succinct press release no longer than a page, which will highlight an initiative that your organization has either undertaken or is planning to undertake. Combined, this assignment should be between eight and sixteen pages in length and will be worth 10% of your grade or 100 points.

- Press Release (30 Points)
